There is reason to believe that the Government will question the active association of army and navy officers with such an organization as the American Legion is described to be. Both Secretary Daniels have submitted to Congress proposals for the formation of a reserve to be part by the Order in Council, should be the Order in Council, should be force during the continuance of each thostilities. The exceptions were averred to be necessary. A order was adopted by the Government. This Order in I reads as follows:

and impeded the enveloping movement of the Germans. After detaching troops to attack Przasnysz, and strongly covering this operation in the direction of the Narew, the enemy made his principal effort against our right flank concentrated in the region of Maws. In the sector of Lyshovo and Kholnovo, seven miles in extent, the attack was simultaneous from the north and south. This was a ridge benind which the German columns which had turned Przasnysz had reached Voliverlowska, half way between Przasnysz and Cziechanoff. At the same time the Germans delivered a secondary but vigorous attack along our whole front.

The enemy took the offensive in the region of Lipue, Serpec and Bejune on February 6, bringing five di-visions into speration about the middle of February. The enemy reached the Plotz and Racionez front, but as the result of a des-perate battle on the 18th of Feb-ruary we stopped further progress n this region.

About this date the Germans concentrated very great forces between Mlawa and Villenberg and took the offensive. We discovered on the offensive. We discovered on the 18th great activity in the German advance guards in the Khorgele district. Great forces of the enemy on the 20th began an impetuous advance. Passing Przasnysz on the east they reached Czuka village. Przasnysz formed the extreme point d'appui of our right wing in this region. Here our infantry brigade was operating and after meeting the enemy's attack with vigor took the initiative and threw Besides this brigade our force
